

Amazon ECR

Amazon ECR (Elastic Container Registry) is AWS's managed Docker container registry service, offering secure storage and deployment of Docker images. Ideal for integrating with AWS services, it supports fine-grained access control and automated lifecycle management, ensuring scalability and reliability for containerized applications.